

Graduate School T-shirt Design Agreement

The Auburn University Graduate School held a T-shirt design competition beginning in October 2026 and concluding on November 30, 2026. The undersigned submitted the winning T-shirt design that will be utilized for the Auburn University Graduate School T-shirts, starting fall 2027. By signing below, both parties agree to the following criteria:

1. The winning student, by way of signature below, acknowledges that the submitted artwork is an original creation by the submitter and is not subject to copyright.
2. The winning student, by way of signature below, agrees to not submit this design to other competitions nor reproduce this artwork by any other means.
3. The winning student, by way of signature below, acknowledges that they no longer own this design and forfeit all rights to future use of this design.
4. The Auburn University Graduate School, by way of signature below, retains exclusive rights to use the submitted design from the winning contestant.
5. The Graduate School will own the design and may reproduce the design on T-shirts or other items – print or digital – in the future.
6. The winning student, by way of signature below, accepts a Wrapsody gift basket, valued at approximately $XX, as compensation for their winning design.

Award and Compensation

The creator of the winning artwork is hereby awarded Wrapsody gift basket after successful submission of final artwork and all required waiver forms.

Student Winner

FN MN LN, 904XXXXXX

Contact: abc0123@auburn.edu

Winning Student designer

Graduate School representative

Date

Date